

LOCALS

Miss Sue Barbee of Alexandria, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Loftis.

W. L. Dixon of Gladdico, is here on business.

Jim Eads of near Burksville, Ky., was in town this week.

M. C. Chapman of Phillips, Chapman Co., Nashville, was in town Wednesday and Thursday.

H. G. Young is here with his family. They will leave in a few days for Cookeville, where they go to reside. Mr. Young has rented his property here to Lee McCartney.

Mrs. George Draper and children, Paula and Elsie, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gailbreath, will leave Saturday for their home in Chattanooga.

Gene C. Huffines, the popular representative of Phillips-Trawick Co., was in town this week. As usual, Gene reports business good in his line. He is always optimistic and is invariably looking UP. He never talks hard times, which has a lot to do with it.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Roddy and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Roddy and children, of Center Point, Ky. have been visiting relatives near Gainesboro.

Quarles & McCawley Co., have an advertisement, in this issue, setting out a few of the many beautiful things they have in store for you. Look over it, and then go and get what you want while have the opportunity. The prettiest things always sell first.

Frank Moore, after a two weeks visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holland and A. H. Johnson and family, will leave first of the week for his home in San Antonio, Texas.

Jim, the five year old son of Omer Roddy, of Center Point, Ky., was here last week, en route to Morristown, where he will be under the treatment of government physicians for ticoma. He was accompanied by his cousin, Miss Josie Roddy.

James Loftis has opened a meat shop in the old theatre building on west side, and is prepared to serve the public in the way of nice roasts, steak, etc. Mr. Loftis is an experienced butcher, having come here from Scottsville, Ky., where conducted a butcher's four years. When you want good clean fresh meat cut to order, give him a call, he's here to serve you.

M. P. Bailey and son, Frank, have gone to Meagsville, where they have taken charge of the stock of general merchandise they recently bought of Henry Hall & Co. Mrs. Bailey and little daughter, Ruby will join them in a few days. Mr. Bailey and his son have been in the grocery business here for the past five years, and have, by their honest, straight-forward business dealings, won the confidence and friendship of the people. Their departure from our midsts will be a lasting regret, however we wish them success.

A wedding of wide interest, was that of Miss Ruby Birdwell, the charming and popular young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Birdwell, of Whitleyville, and Mr. Lyman Dudley, a prominent young farmer of Freestate, which was quietly solemnized Thursday afternoon at 3:30 near Whitleyville, Elder J. B. Dudley, a grandfather of the groom officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by a few close friends and relatives.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dudley, and is a highly esteemed young man. Both are of prominent families and have numerous friends who will be interested in their marriage.

Sallie Keen Gist has returned from Nashville, after a week's visit with relatives. While there she had her tonsils removed and glasses fitted, and was able to take in a few days of the fair.

C. H. SCHOOL NOTES.

The high school department of the Jackson County Central High School is doing splendid work and much interest is being taken.

The Literary Societies met Thursday and the program were very interesting. One special feature was the reading given by Mr. Cox.

The meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association on Wednesday afternoon was well attended and, an interesting program was rendered. The association is the connecting link between home and school, and as such, it should have the loyal support of every patron. Attend the next meeting Oct. 12.

"Domestic Science Girls"

Where'd the thing originate? Who started all this fun? Why to be sure? Who else would do? Miss Myres is the one.

Rubye cuts her good cross ways and Vivian lectures all through the day, because she gets in such a haste and the goods are thrown to waste.

Elizabeth embroiders in black and Ara laughs behind her back. Louise is working button holes (Indeed, I have seen worse) Lillie Brown bastes up every seam Lucile's overseer.

Leona rules the note book team while Hallie spreads good cheer. All C. H. S. girls are working every night. It makes the "slackers" feel like who isn't in the fight.

Lost—A German book by a Sophomore with a torn back and appendix, covered with ink. Finder please return to Christine Settle.

At a recent meeting of the Appoloian Literary Society, the president suggested that we should have a cuspidor for the hall, Roger Quarles rose and said, "I nominate Alex McDougal."

A Riddle: The Seniors are sometimes dogmatic and the Freshmen are always ecstatic. There's a class in between so calmly serene, you'd think they belonged in the attic.

A boy—A book.

A girl—A look.

Book neglected, flunk expected:

Those in fifth and sixth grade not falling below 80 in any subject.

Fifth grade: Zella Smith, William C. Anderson.

Sixth grade: Francis Wooten, Cordell Hestand, Victor McDearman, Ernest Hestand, Jack Smith.

It is seldom that we ever have the boys making higher grades than the girls.

There is still a little time wasted by some of the girls and we want to try to beat this next month.

Our first month's examination was very satisfactory, but we are hoping to make better success the next month.

Otha Smith,

Honor roll for week ending Sept. 23.

Third grade: Arron Hunter, Bessie Huff, Clyde McCain, Lera Young, Christine Roberts, Mary Joe Meadows, Amy Loftis, Bill Wooten, Herbert Anderson, Minnie Mabry, Lola B. Allen, Joe Roark, Will Grundy Quarles, Roy McCauley, Bill Johnson, Gus Netherton, Kate Netherton, Velsie Maynard.

Fourth grade: Ben Jackson, Carl Smith, John H. Vernon, Garland Anderson, Ruth Reeves, Lucy Henson, Mary Kinnard, Christine Gibson, Sam Burris, Sam Stafford, Ray Anderson, Mamie Stafford, Anna Lee Smith, Robert Kinnard, Cordell Brooks, Joe West, Roger Polson, Fowler Young, Jewel Dixon, Ida Stafford, Pearl Whitaker, Lera Young, Velsie Maynard, Gus Netherton, Bill Johnson, Kate Netherton, Edwin Smith, Henry Shoulders.

We will be glad to have any of the patrons to visit our room at any time.

We are doing real work now building a good foundation for the higher grades.

The boys and girls are very much interested and are anxious for promotion.

Parents will you please let us have your co-operation? We need your help in order to make a success of the work we are doing.

Mrs. Lois C. Reeves.

Honor roll of primary room week ending Sept. 23.

TIME AND FORETHOUGHT

Since first of the year we have given much more than our usual time and forethought to buying. Prices were falling every day. It was a question as to when the bottom would be reached. Every one was guessing. We were fortunate in being one among those who guessed right, and while they were on the bottom, while prices were at their very lowest we bought and bought heavily, consequently we have
